The General H. Hugh Shelton Leadership Forum is a one-day professional development experience for:

- Corporate Executives and Managers
- Economic Developers
- Agency Leaders
- Education Administrators
- Military Leaders
- Emerging Leaders, Scholars, and Practitioners

REGISTRATION

- Early Bird: July 15 - October 31  $169
- Regular Registration: starting November 1  $199

Online at https://sheltonleadership.ncsu.edu/shelton-leadership-forum/current-form/

Call 919.513.0148
Fax your registration form to 919.513.4813
Forms available online.

Presented by Office of the Provost

HEAR THESE DYNAMIC SPEAKERS

- General H. Hugh Shelton
- Mallory Weggemann
- Rocky Bleier
- Thurl Bailey

Friday, November 3, 2017
McKimmon Conference and Training Center, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC

The Shelton Leadership Forum is a wonderful opportunity to study leadership with some of the finest leaders in the world. The opportunity to hear and interact with General Shelton is worth the ticket price, but then to also get to see leaders such as Ross Perot and John Maxwell makes this conference a one-of-a-kind value.

- Alan Felton, Assistant Secretary
  for Business Systems, NC Department of Revenue

WHAT PARTICIPANTS SAY

"What’s Your Game Plan? -- Strategies for Effective Leadership"

Friday, November 3, 2017
McKimmon Conference and Training Center, North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC

North Carolina State University celebrates 16 years of developing exceptional leaders.
General H. Hugh Shelton

Gen. Shelton, served as the 14th Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from 1997 until his retirement in 2001. The NC State alumnus is a decorated combat veteran of the Vietnam War and was the first member of the elite U.S. Army Special Forces—the Green Berets—to rise to the nation’s top military post. Before serving as the principal military advisor to the President, the Secretary of Defense and the National Security Council, General Shelton was Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. Special Operations Command, overseeing the Green Berets and the Navy Seals. He was awarded the Congressional Gold Medal by the United States Congress.

Thurl Bailey

Thurl Bailey attended NC State and was a key player in the Wolfpack’s miracle run to the 1983 NCAA Championship. He was drafted by the Utah Jazz, selected for the quality of his character and the quality of his game; he played pro-basketball for 16 years, 12 with the NBA. Thurl is a man of both height and depth. He has countless hours of volunteer work and numerous awards for his leadership and community contributions. He directs basketball camps for youth, and many have special needs including disadvantaged backgrounds, or serious illnesses. In addition, Thurl is a broadcast analyst, an actor, and an award-winning singer/songwriter.

Rocky Bleier

Rocky Bleier embodies heroism, determination, teamwork, and leadership. After being drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers, Rocky was drafted by the U.S. Army to fight in Vietnam. Told he would never walk again after receiving severe wounds, he bravely rehabilitated himself. Defeating all odds, Rocky regained his running back position on the Steelers’ squad. He received the 2015 Eagle Rare Life Heroism Award for his incredible drive and inspirational story, described in the popular book Fighting Back, and on an ABC-TV movie of the week by the same name. He motivates audiences to reach for their goals, despite all obstacles.

Mallory Weggemann

Mallory Weggemann breaks down the pillars of leadership into a more simplistic form, baby steps. She insists that is the only way to take a daunting task, a looming challenge, an insurmountable obstacle and conquer it. In October of 2008 Mallory found her own life was focused on change. Mallory’s story appeals to anyone seeking a genuine and, at times, raw examination of one young woman’s journey through grief to the top of the Paralympic medal platform, from being confined to a chair to learning to walk again with braces. Though her spine will never heal, her spirit is unstoppable.

What Makes This Program Unique

The General H. Hugh Shelton Leadership Forum is an annual seminar series that focuses attention on the importance of leadership development. The Forum is a program offered through the General Henry Hugh Shelton Leadership Center administered by the NC State University Office of the Provost. As Executive Director, General Shelton is committed to developing values-based leadership skills to enhance corporate, education, and youth development organizations.

The Forum strives to bring together an intergenerational audience from diverse professional backgrounds in order to create a more dynamic dialogue about values-based leadership. The General Henry Hugh Shelton Leadership Center offers education scholarships, as well as executive, faculty, student, and youth development programs. To learn more visit our website at www.ncsu.edu/sheltonleadership

Schedule At A Glance

Friday, November 3, 2017 7:45-8:30 a.m.
Registration and Check-in

8:30-9:30 a.m.
Keynote: “Baby Steps: An Intimate Discussion on the Basic Forms of Leadership” Speaker: Mallory Weggemann, Paralympic Gold Medalist

9:45-10:30 a.m.
Leadership Lessons

10:45-11:45 a.m.
Keynote: “What Matters Most” Speaker: Thurl Bailey, Former Utah Jazz and NC State basketball player; broadcast analyst; actor; singer/songwriter

11:45 a.m. - 12:50 p.m.
Luncheon

1:00-2:00 p.m.
Keynote: “Leadership Through Teamwork, Perseverance, and Hope” Speaker: Rocky Bleier, Veteran; former Pittsburgh Steeler; author, Fighting Back

2:00 p.m.
Adjourn